

Part-Time Benefits Summary

Financial Security

403(b) Plan

Immediate eligibility to defer up to the 2026 contribution limit of $24,500. Individuals age 50–59 or age 64+ at the end of the calendar year can make additional catch-up contributions of $8,000 in 2026, raising their employee contribution limit to $32,500. Individuals age 60–63 at the end of the calendar year may make a “super catch-up” contribution of $11,250, raising their employee contribution limit to $35,750.

Eligible for employer match and employer discretionary contribution after completion of 1,000 hours of service after entry date; entry dates are the earlier of January 1 or July 1 after completing 12 months and 1,000 hours of service.

Employer matches 100% of team member deferral up to $500, plus 50% up to 6% of team member wages deferred that are in excess of $500.

You are always 100% vested in any wages you defer. Employer matching and discretionary contributions are subject to a seven year vesting schedule.

And More

Part-time Paid Time Off

Part-time team members who average a minimum of 15 hours per week during that fiscal year are eligible. Any individual with a full year of service will receive the full benefit, while those working 6 months up to the year threshold will receive a prorated amount at half of the PTO listed in the chart below.

Average hours past fiscal year	Earned PTO next calendar year
15 - 19 hour average	32 hours
20 - 24 hour average	40 hours
25+ hour average	48 hours

Health and Fitness

$10 monthly allowance for those who wish to take advantage of health clubs, fitness centers, health and fitness related memberships, subscriptions, and class packages.

Part-time team members who have completed 1000 hours of service in the last calendar year are eligible.
